Serial No. 3

From

The President of the D.A.B.D. Kadur N° 432 dated 13th March 1908.

Reports that the increased contingent allotment of Rs 15 p.m. for the Vydyasala at Chickmagalur is being utilized with effect from 1st Aug 1905 in accordance with the sanctioned D.7 budget for 1905-06 though no separate orders were obtained therefor and submits a Statement showing the no of cases admitted into the Vaidyasala and the expenditure incurred on account of medicines since the opening of the institution.

2. The budget provision for an enhanced allotment is not sufficient authority for incurring the expenditure, unless the proposed increase is specifically sanctioned in the budget order sanctioning the budget. But no such sanction was accorded as the variation escaped notice. How the Comptroller accepted the increased expenditure in the absence of Govt sanction to a matter for consideration & enquiring by that Office Submitted for orders as to whether the Comptroller may be requested to favor his remarks as to how the charge was accepted.

Forwarded (n o) to the Comptroller for favor of note as to how the excess charge was admitted with out Govt sanction. Bg orders.

I invite attention to rule 1 under article 6 (a) (ii) which evidently reference is made in the above rule. The Sanction referred to in the rule is to the charge which requires govt Sanction before it can be incurred. It is only certain kinds of contingent expenditure that require ~~expenditure~~ govt Sanction and the ordinary contingent charges are admitted on accounts rendered by Drawers and passed by Controlling officers. In regard to the latter class of contingent charges, the only check applied is that of budget provision. If contingent expenditure within the powers of the Drawing and Controlling officers are incurred and there is provision in the budget to meet such expenditure, the latter is admitted under the Audit rules The present is a case of this kind.
